

You are cordially invited to attend

“Fannie Lou Hamer, Martin Luther King and Obama's Other Ancestors”

presented by

Dr. Vincent Harding

Civil Rights Leader

Historian and Theologian at Iliff School of Theology in Denver

Author of There Is a River: The Black Struggle for Freedom in America

Tuesday, May 12, 2009

6:30 p.m.

1500 Social Sciences Building

The University of Michigan-Dearborn

A reception and refreshments will follow the talk.

For further information, please contact

Ms. Sharie Beard at (313) 593-4925 or sbeard@umd.umich.edu.

Co-sponsored by:

African and African American Studies Program, UM-Dearborn
Department of Communication and Journalism, Oakland University Center for the Study of Religion and Society, UM-Dearborn
Boggs Center to Nurture Community Leadership, Detroit

The University of Michigan-Dearborn does not necessarily endorse speakers' views.